

St. Joseph Catholic Church invites you to an
Advent Parish Mission

Prepare the Way

Living God's Mission of Love

December 10 - 12, 2018

Schedule

Mission Sessions are offered twice daily.

Morning Session:

Mass at 8:30 a.m., followed by the Mission presentation from 9:15-10:45 a.m. Refreshments immediately following in the St. John Bosco Room.

Evening Session:

Refreshments in the St. John Bosco Room from 6:15-6:45 p.m., followed by the Mission presentation from 6:45-8:15 p.m.

Daily Themes

Monday, December 10

We are Created to Share in God's Mission of Love

Tuesday, December 11

Encounter of Love

Wednesday, December 12

Guided and Gifted by the Spirit, We Go Forth as a Community of Missionary Disciples

Ms. Carolyn Trumble

Carolyn is a lay minister who has worked in mission education and involvement for over 20 years. As a Mission Promoter and Educator with Maryknoll Fathers and Brothers, she is involved in the creation of the Discover Your Neighbor Program which provides resources to teachers and catechists. She is also active in outreach to young adults. Carolyn is an experienced workshop presenter, trainer, and is available to accompany groups and individuals as they strive to live as missionary disciples.

Carolyn has an Interdisciplinary Degree in Theology and Communications from Marylhurst University. She has served in parishes for over 25 years in the roles of Coordinator of Youth Ministry, DRE, and Pastoral Associate. She currently lives in Santa Clara, CA.

Deacon Juan F. Lezcano, OFS

Deacon Juan F. Lezcano, OFS, was ordained for the Archdiocese of Seattle on September 13, 2003. He was born in Cuba and migrated to the United States in 1969. He is married to Karen and they have 9 adult children and 11 grandchildren. Both of them are members of the Secular Franciscan Order and were professed on April 6, 1986, as well as members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, where Deacon Juan serves as Spiritual Advisor. Deacon Juan is retired from the United States Army and presently is a supervisor with Child Protective Services with the State of Washington. He serves at his home parish of St. Vincent de Paul in Federal Way, as well as Sacred Heart Hispanic Community in Lacey. Deacon Juan is presently serving on two Archdiocesan Advisory Committees, Mental Health Committee and Immigrant & Refugee Committee. Deacon Juan was past President of Franciscan Mission Service and United States International Councilor for the Secular Franciscan Order.