

St. Joseph Parish Pastoral Council

The time is here for nominations

QUALIFICATIONS: Nominees for Council membership are: baptized and confirmed, registered, practicing and contributing members of the parish, committed to the teachings of the Second Vatican Council, willing to stay current on developments in diocesan and universal Church, consensus-builders, able to fulfill three-year term, at least 18 years of age, not a member of the parish staff.

QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR NOMINEE: Is this person prayerful? A good communicator? Someone who promotes the life and mission of the parish and local region? Respectful of others even when views differ? A bridge-builder and healer? Someone familiar with St. Joseph history/tradition and able to represent continuity or someone with a “new face” and a fresh perspective? Able to maintain confidentiality? Able to listen well, discern, make decisions and stand behind them? Free to commit to the necessary monthly meetings?
